MRS. EMILIE GREGG
Coach

Members of the G. A. C. enjoy the following sports during the year: tennis, soccer, volley ball, aerial tennis, basketball, and softball. Competitive spirit in after-school games is stimulated by letters awarded to girls earning 500 or more points during the year. The high-point senior receives a trophy on Class Day. While they are having fun playing together, the members of the G. A. C. are also learning sportsmanship and the value of team play.

In 4

MR. COX admitted that he was a sucker. He intercepted a note passed by a student that he had just called down for talking. The note read, "Isn't Mr. Cox a nice man?" P. S. Is that what the note really said, Mr. Cox?

In 112

JOHNNY METZ: zzzzzzzzz (You're right; he had fallen asleep.)

In 106

MISS DUERSON: Now let's say that 106 is Pyramus's home and the office is Thisbe's. GLENN JOHNSON: Miss Duerson, is there something going on between you and Mr. Garth?

In W

Mr. Cox: Think of how few actors really succeed on the stage. Most of them either give up or starve.
Randy Fox: Yeah, and some become teachers.

MR. COX: What is the nominative plural form of "I"?
BILLY HOOVER: Eyes.
MAURICE NICHOLSON: I's here!

In 106

POT DOWDEN: Miss Duerson, which date should we remember?
DAN ELLIS: Not the one Saturday night, Pat.

In 8:

Mrs. Wallace, discussing a film to be seen on Patrick Henry: Patrick Henry's wife was brought by his friends to hear his speech.

Mr. Tague, sitting in on the class: You mean a married man said, "Give me liberty or give me death!"

What Goes On

In The Auditorium

Friday night, shortly before the curtain went up on "Finian's Rainbow," Mr. Garth announced that the motor of car 431-411 was running. Upon further investigation it was discovered that the owner was not a student but an absent-minded teacher.

WHAT GOES ON

In Cox's Corner

Mr. Cox, giving out words on a spelling test: Mistake.
Joe Ray: Spell that, please!
Mr. Cox: T H A T. Ha! Ha!
Let's do that again.

What Goes On

At The Bard Theater

Light blue denim Bermuda shorts are just the thing to wear to the Bard Theater on Saturday afternoon, according to our assistant principal. Did you enjoy "The Seven Little Foys?", Mr. Tague?

After the story had just been read on biting toenails and fingernails, BETSY BODEN said to PAT DOWDEN: Do you bite your toenails?
PAT DOWDEN: I would if I could reach 'em.

WHAT GOES ON

MISS DUERSON: Now, for example, let us say I'm going to the football game with him. Oh — Miss Duerson!

LEON GLEAVES: Is Mr. Osborne the teacher with the red hair?
NICKY BELKER: Yes, he's the king of the wild woodship.

What Goes On

Mr. Cox, talking about the gray aluminum powder to be used for the older characters in the senior play: It looks like the stardust in your hair. Everyone wants to look like they have stardust in their hair... of course some people have druff.

The girl that's least likely to be seen without a smile is Mary Ann Brudy.

Bill and Dick Young have a special incentive for making touchdowns. Their Sunday school teacher bakes them a cake for every touchdown they make.

Rita Wolfson sings regularly on radio and entertains the soldiers at Service Club at Fort Knox also.

In The Principal's Office

The flowers on Mr. Garth's desk during the first week of school were a farewell gift from the Manual faculty. Atherton Rebels extend their sympathies to the Crimson for their first loss of the season.

What Goes On

In 114

MRS. WHEELER: Please diagram your sentence at the blackboard.
NEIL SHERMAN: Should we dissect our sentence, too?

MISS SWEENEY: Would you like me to carry your books upstairs?
HELPFUL SOPHOMORE: TO MISS SWEENEY: Why, yes.
SOPHOMORE: Are you substituting here?

MISS SWEENEY: My dear, I've been substituting at Atherton since 1924.
SOPHOMORE: Oh.

In 114

A Spanish sentence which read, "Lipstick should be of a color that irresistibly attracts men," was translated thus by Nancy Dudgeon: "A stick for the lips ought to be of a color to attract irresistible men!"

KENNY ROSENBERG: What did I finish my story.
ESTHER PARAN: What did you write on?
KENNY: A sheet of paper.

What Goes On

In 9

Susan Fleischaker: I've got problems.
Mr. Davis: I've got problems too.

Susan: But I've got real problems.
Mr. Davis: I've been through the mill headfirst! I'm not old, just well worn.

WHAT GOES ON

Milly Freeman won first prize at the Kentucky State Fair for her painting.

In X

MR. COX: What's the matter with your mouth, Roy?
ROY: Why?
MR. COX: It seems to be moving.

WHAT GOES ON

Paul Gamble, Atherton sophomore, was one of six boys chosen by the Optimist Club to attend the Notre Dame-SMU game.

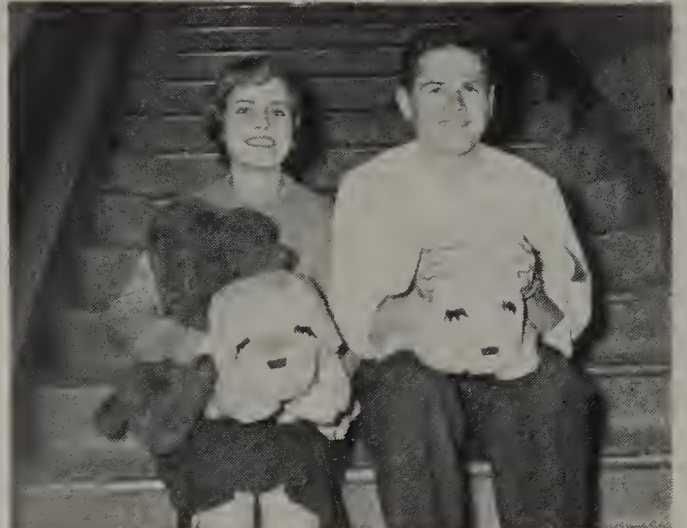

Esther Paron's pony tail is adorned with something new every day. One day it's a stuffed animal and the next it's a toy chair or a belt.
